Time: Thursday evening (7 pm)

I open this portal to you and invite you to connect in with the energy that I bring through to you - an energy that you may find uplifts and inspires you to continue your experience of life and endeavour to connect that experience into a greater sense of purpose and balance for you and the reason that you are present on Earth in this particular time phase. I call on the fulness of your light body to come to be present in that dimensional existence which is familiar to it and easy for it to be in, preparatory to you physically existing in the same higher frequency pattern, consciously. Come with me as we connect in with the beings of light.

"I greet you at this point Dear One. Orem speaking to you and I greet you in this introductory phase of the Command Centre. Its purpose is to adjust you to this frequency, for as you initially put your attention and focus into your light form, there is the sense of separation you go through and there is the necessity to become used to existing in a plane of understanding where you are open to receive the fulness of the vibration here and you are called forth to seek expectantly the particular environment for you to present yourself into to understand the universe as it expressed outward into Creation.

It also helps you to extend your senses into the communication area.

There are many gathered around you here from different states of existence and we all come forward as a unit into the expanded communication centre. This chamber serves as a connecting point for you and many layers of existences you have experienced and here is the opportunity always given to you to willingly give forth your fears, your doubts, the emotions that have kept you confined so that you can experience a greater wisdom and knowing and connection into the infinite consciousness here. So, this is a great place to come into.

Allow yourself the sense that you are expanding and rising and as you do that, be aware of the greater connections coming to you. We wish you to recognise the many who work with you in this present phase of timing and experience and the connections coming forth to you mean that you have assistance to understand your place within the universe and to recall the abilities you have. The abilities remain with you as deep knowledge and so you may find surfacing within you memories of patterns that you upheld for general population, for specific people who would come to you, for specific areas of land and creatures indeed, and some opened passageways and kept them open for the transference of information from gateways beyond this existing universe of yours, to and from, participating in a programme that helped to identify Earth and to identify the areas that it needed increasing in vibration and adjustment and to identify the places that had ceased to exist within a classified area of light-energy that assisted the greater purpose expanding the universe.

These areas that are so identified will be filled with the appropriate energy to continue to function and to be brought into the corrected pattern, enabling the Earth to function as a whole.

You may identify this personally in your present existence as you identify the areas around you that interfere with you functioning wholly within the Divine Blueprint. Even as we speak these words, experience the energy going forth to you and you may sense the blueprint being matched with your blueprint into the Divine Blueprint once more.

There will of necessity be adjustments made to you and you may feel the pulsation within circuits as if you were experiencing it physically. Some of these are felt and experienced in finer layers contained around your life form. Understand that every connection that is enhanced and brought forth into the correct blueprint releases a large amount of information and energy which may give rise to pockets of emotion felt around you. This may also give rise to a deep sense of satisfaction and fulfilment. Come forth and enter within this vibration, allowing it to connect you completely and fully in that which you would speak about as being the ideal way of functioning and living for you, and when all is in order and balance you go forth confidently in strength and the beams of light both surrounding you and emanating from you intensify, and the energy is drawn forth into all areas of disturbance so that may be adjusted and to come into balance and harmony once more.

Your presence on Earth is valued and your connections to the fulness of creation is valued by all who support you and recognise the necessity of connecting fully and allowing all discord to be transformed and so you become strongly in position. As you identify with this alignment, allow the beings who are watching you to send forth more light energy to you and this will give you the sense of instruction, guidance and clarity as you perceive the occurrences around the patterns within Earth and the places that are being transformed. All this occurs and from the information given to you through the Star Elders, you have gained insight into many of the changed areas that have already occurred within structures, within cities of light prepared for the great upliftment.
