Issue 491

Date: August 06, 2009

Time: Thursday afternoon (4 pm)

Welcome to this space once more, that I name the Omega Communications portal, and welcome all of You that is the Unit identified as you, and come with me again to link in with the higher light energy information given to us. How do you identify yourself?

Are you a person? Are you an energy unit? Are you mind? Are you greater than that? We would want all of you to come forward into the higher spaces of light frequency and yet there is that element - the physical body self - that remains in the physical Earth dimension world, and that other part of you - your light self comes forward eagerly and readily in these higher light spaces.

"Orem here with you and I greet you at the entranceway into our great vessel of communication and vessel of linkup and vessel of upliftment.

As you adjust to the frequency here you become different in your form and outlook. You may feel taller and stronger, happier, brighter.

You may feel you have become so empowered that you could make a big difference all around you in your life, and this is the aspect we address. Come forward now as one collective unit, directly into the communication chamber.

There is always much to give you and present to you in terms of light energy and the information beamed to you. Collectively as a vast group, you emanate a vibration that automatically seeks to bring about a higher order and to work in a specific sequence that is known to the deeper aspects of you. This is exciting for us to speak to you about this. Many things you hear when you are ready to hear and there are issues that are not able to come forth to you presently, so we envelop you in the highest frequency that we can to support you as you move forward in expansion of consciousness to receive a greater understanding and the distinctive energy message that puts you in the position where you gain much beneficial energy to activate a higher frequency pulse to work effectively physically to make the adjustments in the physical self unit of you.

As the new coding sequence within you adapts and increases the presence of cellular memory and functioning in accordance with the highest blueprint, then you are given more specific assistance to put you in the correct positioning and with the group who are working ideally to change conditions around you. We do speak in a general term of course with such a message to you, but you know within you the various areas that you are presented into in a multi dimensional way around you where you have been feeling you are working with groups of people - perhaps making adjustments in flows of vital energy and information to others, and in many ways all supporting the process of evolvment and upliftment. This cannot be done without you, for you are present on Earth for this purpose and it comes through in an individual and unique way as you work with the codes within you.

We bring you into a space here for the further immersion into an energy system for you. Feel this energy working around you. Each of you will identify it in a certain way as words, numbers, shapes, colours, smell, sound. There are many senses that you perceive in this particular dimensional frequency you are drawn into and this whole process within all these transmissions enables you to absorb the next impulse of energy for the codes to decipher and for the unique cellular functions within you to put into manifestation in whatever way is appropriate in accordance with the master cellular functions.

This reinforces the power you have and increases the aspect of you where you can feel that you are important and have a specific function. To enable this function to come through you we have consistently presented you into the vibration here to restore you in every way. There are many layers of course involved in this and all must be working co-operatively. You may be able to identify which part of you resists the change or is holding back, or has been damaged in some way through experiences in your vast existences. This again is why we have addressed the different aspects of you to come forward into the present to be cleared and freed and for all aspects to work together to evolve and be present.

Experienced in the dimensional connections around you in this phase has been a unique opening within the dimensional connection and this has allowed a greater strength of that knowledge of creation to come through in the blueprint. The blueprint has always presented to you the total order and functioning for you and the connections to your individual blueprint are strengthened during this particular opening and alignment of the two systems. So, you have been increasing in health and well-being and have you allowed all parts of you to appreciate this - your thoughts indeed and emotional pattern and that part of you that sings and vibrates to a note reflected out as happiness and joy when those two systems are interlaced fully.
