Issue 529
Date: May 27, 2010
Time: Thursday afternoon 3.30 pm

I am with you this day to walk with you on your journey once more and in particular I draw you forth to come and be with me and many others who come forward into the receiving area through the Omega Communications portal. This receiving area is what we perceive as being in a vessel of light and is a state of transition for us, so be with me here in your greatest light energy self, allowing you to be free of all your thoughts and conditions of the human experience to come back again into the infinite self that you are. And we wait.

"Greetings to you this day. We are with you. Orem speaking representing those of us present of the Command of Light and we would address you in such a way that each of you respond on a different level to a particular framework of reference in the words, in the energy systems that we bring to you.

We speak and bring the impulses to you on many different vibratory levels and indeed a different dimension that you will respond to.

If you are particular about who you would wish to speak to you, indeed you may feel coming through the words a particular being. This assists you to be open-hearted and open-minded and the whole purpose of this is to expand your consciousness into a state of receptivity where you perceive the universe as it would be in its potential to you and in a field of vibration that draws you into the new space which is required for you on the Earth plane at this time.

This introduction brings different aspects of you into focus here and attunement and through this attunement we can bring you into the greater assembly area of the communication chamber. It is referred to as a communication chamber not only in the terms of a verbal expression, but where you can be successfully linked to receive all that you are waiting to receive - the You that exists in different dimensions, and the You that, while present on Earth, still maintains a sense of a greater perspective of the universe.

In this particular line of energy system we can assemble you in such a way that you are drawn directly into the aspect of creation that we have referred to that will bring you into the repositioning condition and experience where you bring with you the elements of the earth station into this level that you belong to and that the Earth is moving into - this great relocation process occurring.

You will become more and more aware of this. It is now within your consciousness fully and as you appreciate the change and look for confirmation in your scientific papers and messages, you are able to adjust to what is brought forward to you. The conscious recognition enables the process to be increased within you.

What was referred to in earlier messages of the unfoldment in the dimensions is this process occurring and it is necessary for you to understand this in a comfortable sense that you can respond to so that in future, in the messages you have not yet perceived can be true, as they come to you, you will comprehend them.

Without comprehension and allowance of the new information to come to you, you are closed off to the portals that allow the shift to take place. Therefore, in opening your awareness and thought patterns to accept the possibilities that you are making the change and you are bringing forth a great number of people also with you, you are increasing the energy field around you. You are bringing into your sphere of recognition a new and expanded level of assistance.

We are entrusting you with this process. We need you to be able to take this trust in confidence and eagerness, knowing that you are in a sense exploring new territories - new galaxies - and this information works throughout you.

You may perceive yourself in this sense to be a processor and the more that you process, the more energy you expand into and you lead a great number and aspects of creation into this expanded field of knowledge and information.

Before creation can happen in a very realistic way for you on Earth, this process you are going through is necessary as you open the doorways for that information to come through you. You are not just a single person confined to what you would see as your life. Your energy field is in contact with a much higher level of connectivity. When you maintain your connection as a pure sense and a pure channel for information to come through, you can see the effect and feel the effect around you.
