A question posted on the Omega website discussion page:

.....can and will Orem+ provide us with more information about who they are, where they come from ... in plain language?

"We are with you in support of this clarification sought.

It is easy for the unseeing to be led into diverse areas and the proof of that comes forth in their lives of entanglement and disorder and disagreement and many angry situations. You have searched long and hard using logic and others' information, which has revealed many loopholes and areas of deceit and devolvement.

Now let us take you on a journey of explanation. We do this by allowing you to come through the portal which is on an outer limit of your consciousness which in turn is on an outer limit of the field of information around the earth planet which is held as a limiting device by those ones who do not wish all people to awaken and understand how they have been deceived.

Because we have stayed within the energetic field of this part of the universe to assist the seekers who wish to return to their true home, we are beyond that limitation and therefore we are able to offer a portal in this dimensional existence to usher you through.

Some may say it is a term of salvation but it is only those who are willing to work and search and accept a higher adjustment frequency who will even see and sense and feel the portal and if that is so, if they have completed their adjustment time and have freed themselves of limiting emotions / fear, then they are given the opportunity to come through this portal and the portal itself is of such a frequency that it will not allow any of a lesser frequency, or you might say alliance, as you have been investigating, to come through. It is a pure level of existence and the science behind this does reveal this aspect of the frequency adjustment which also filters out the frequencies which are not in alignment with it.

This will bring you through time and space as you know it to be measured and defined into a collective space. When you are properly in that space and we speak as a general group 'you', then it is that collectively you have a greater vision to understand the source of your information and the ultimate realignment project that you have been exposed to through all your current lifetimes, but also in those aspects of you existing in other life experiences parallel to this.

There is as you know disturbing factors and factions. We have come to the point where these are not necessarily defined to you because in speaking a vibration, that aspect is drawn to you. You understand what we say? If you focus upon certain phrases you are drawn within that field of opportunity provided by those who wait to obtain greater numbers. We are working in a capacity alongside enlightened beings and we are here specifically in our role to separate you from the earth-plane conditions which are disturbing you.

At this point you have had information shown to you and revealed at the same time as there is a great release and disturbance resulting in the release around the earth planet structure and yet at a given point of experience this had to arise.

There is an evolvment out of that also once there is a release of the power of the locked in - we can give it to you in a descriptive way of dark energy - and when that has been shown to exist and is being shifted, then it is that there will be many indications of pathways leading to the gateway beyond this planetary system, allowing you to be retrieved in such a way that this is where those who pray for salvation expect to be taken.

This comes back to our earlier point that it is only the ones who have been either exposed to assistance to adjust their energy field or they have consciously identified with the point of creation and thereby made the adjustment themselves to pass through this portal, this stellar gateway.

Around your planetary system also will be coming to light information about many groups of beings that you might say are totally evil and they are becoming evident to the people. Again, this is as a result of the upward rising, the evolution preparatory to the complete rising and restoration of the consciousness which comes through in forms of people.

It also comes at a time to give you time to question and to understand the realities that are present alongside you all.

The uprising of all these conditions presented also tends to halt progress if you keep observing these uprisings and if you become involved in the technicalities of them all.

There is information given to you in this message that you will begin to see that you can put aside much of information, much of trying to understand and analyse and simply placing yourself back in the pathway of alignment to your point of creation. This is what you might say your origin before any of these disturbances and influences arose. When you connect back to your point of origin, that goes beyond defining labels and names. It goes back to an origination of creation.

Now you may see that in bringing this information to you all we have also come from that point of creation and you will hear us as one voice, but it is a collective consciousness, as we have always presented ourselves through these portals of information to you all and to each, and we draw you back beyond the point of saying you belong to one planet or this planet, or originated here in this galaxy or that galaxy. That is incorrect. You each are consciousness coming forward to experience life and to understand the alignment necessary to continue your evolvment.

We could give you an illustration here that you may recognise. If you put something within your waters in a deep body of water, and there was released energy or bubbles of air from the bottom of that body of water and you saw it rise in capsules in bubbles, it is not going to be stopped by anything that is present there. It will continue to bypass any blocks, to rise to the surface. In this way this is your evolvment, continually moving upward and forward into a different level of creation that exists there.

We give you this understanding at this point and from this great matrix of consciousness that is upon you, you will feel the upliftment. You will feel it pass as if it is touching each segment of your spine.

This is the information required for you and we are known to you as Star Elders, working within the universal matrix."
